The Dr Philip Christian Trophy is awarded to the unsung hero, someone who routinely carries out difficult, demanding work to a high standard and without any fuss. This year's winner will be Detective Constable Nicky Shimmin.

The Community Partnership Initiative Award trophy is presented for developing an effective and meaningful partnership between the police and the community aimed at enhancing community safety and bringing about mutual understanding and this year will go to the Civil Defence.

The Isle Of Man Police Federation Cup for Service to the Public is awarded for consistently high levels of service to the public and will be presented to Constable Lisa Fitzgerald.

The Les Grady Trophy was purchased by the staff of the Constabulary following the tragic death of Mr Grady in order that he could be remembered by the annual presentation of this cup. The trophy is presented to the member of staff for their outstanding contribution or achievement in the sporting arena. This year will be awarded to former Chief Inspector Juan Kinley.

The Richard Kennaugh Trophy - Following the tragic death of Constable Kennaugh, his family asked for him to be remembered by the annual presentation of this cup awarded to the Probationer who has shown the most promise, aptitude and enthusiasm during their training months. This year will be awarded to Constable Alexander Mealin.

The Community Police Officer of the Year – This is awarded by Isle of Man Newspapers on public nomination to the officer deemed to have contributed most to community policing in the last 12 months. This year's winner is Constable Thomas Duke.

The Chief Constable's Cup (Special Constabulary) – In the past this cup has been given to the Special Constable who achieved the best examination marks in training. This year the panel decided to expand the criteria a little so as to include officers who have shown the most commitment and the most promise. This year's winner will be Special Constable Agnes Foster.

Lt. Col. Roy Leeder Cup (Special Constabulary) – The previous Commandant of the Special Constabulary, Lieutenant Colonel Roy Leeder initiated this trophy to be awarded to the best achiever in the Isle of Man Special Constabulary. This year's winner is Special Constable Charlie Shimmins.

The John Howatson Award - John Howatson retired in March after a career in policing of 41 years. He gave 32 years' service to the people of the Isle of Man either as a Police Constable, or as a member of support staff. He was – and probably still is – passionate about policing, but also about the concept of the police family, where police officers, Special Constables, support staff, volunteers and their families care for each other. This concept of a police family is an important one. John wanted to mark his retirement by donating an award that would go to the person has made the biggest contribution to the concept of "police family." This year the award goes to Mrs Sarah Kennaugh.

The Ellan Vannin Fuels, Police Youth Scheme Trophy -Awarded to the Police Youth Scheme Member showing the most promise. Will be presented by Mr Andrew Sweetman of Ellan Vannin Fuels to Miss Freya Melvin.

The Sergeant Andy Pailor Award - Awarded to officers who have exhibited creativity in promoting and developing team work for the greater good. Will be presented by Mrs Alyson Pailor to Sergeant Andrew Reed.

The R K Eason Trophy was donated to the Isle of Man Constabulary in 1969 by the High Bailiff Mr Eason in appreciation of the Service during his time in office. He asked it be awarded to one or more officers who contributed the most outstanding performance in the fields of Police Service (in all aspects). In the past, recipients have included people who have exhibited extreme courage, through to other officers who have been recognised for outstanding work over many years. The Trophy is rightly seen as being the Constabulary's primary award. Will be presented by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor to Former Inspector Paul Bryan.
